TIERRA DEL FUEGO
Land of contrasts, sheep ranches, and the natural habitation of numerous bird species and marine fauna.

DISTRIBUTED

TIERRA DEL FUEGO is a geographical entity that includes Tierra del Fuego, the largest island on Earth, as well as the Ushuaia Peninsula, and the Tierra del Fuego archipelago. It is characterized by its position in the Southern Hemisphere at the southernmost tip of South America, facing the Southern Ocean.

NATIONAL PARK

The Tierra del Fuego National Park is located in the southeastern part of the country, straddling the Tierra del Fuego archipelago and the mainland. It is one of the most visited national parks in Argentina, attracting thousands of tourists each year. The park is known for its stunning landscapes, rich biodiversity, and unique history.

DISTRIBUTED

PRIMAYER

Most of theGLACIERS ROUTE

The GLACIERS ROUTE begins in Ushuaia, a port city located on the southern coast of the Beagle Channel. From there, you can take a boat excursion to the nearby glaciers, including the famous Glaciar Spegazzini and Glaciar Perito Moreno. Other stops along the route include the Estancia Malvinas Aires, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the Falkland Islands War, and the Evergreen Ranch, where you can experience traditional Patagonian cuisine.

DISTRIBUTED

THE GOLD ROUTE

The GOLD ROUTE starts in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.

DISTRIBUTED

THE LAKES ROUTE

The LAKES ROUTE begins in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.

DISTRIBUTED

TIMAULG

It used to be called the “Bahía Inútil” (Useless Bay) until the mine wasGain changed to Timau In 1979.

DISTRIBUTED

ALBERTO DE AGUSTÓ

In 1968, Alberto de Agustó, a Chilean politician and engineer, proposed the construction of a transcontinental railway to connect the southernmost regions of Chile to the rest of the country. The project was later abandoned due to financial constraints and political changes.

DISTRIBUTED

ALBERTO DE AGUSTÓ

ALBERTO DE AGUSTÓ is a Chilean politician and engineer who proposed the construction of a transcontinental railway to connect the southernmost regions of Chile to the rest of the country. The project was later abandoned due to financial constraints and political changes.

DISTRIBUTED

Mapper Attribute Map: Tierra del Fuego Province National Park Service

DISTRIBUTED

National Tourist Service in Chile

In Bahía Jackson, the undisputed beauty is the abundant flora, where the Antarctic forests are characterized by their imposing size and the starkness of their colors. This is the place where the wildlife is most abundant, with kindled innumerable stories of hunter-gatherers and pioneer explorers.

DISTRIBUTED

NATIONAL PARK

The Tierra del Fuego National Park is located in the southeastern part of the country, straddling the Tierra del Fuego archipelago and the mainland. It is one of the most visited national parks in Argentina, attracting thousands of tourists each year. The park is known for its stunning landscapes, rich biodiversity, and unique history.

DISTRIBUTED

THE GRACIAS ROUTE

The GRACIAS ROUTE begins in Ushuaia, a port city located on the southern coast of the Beagle Channel. From there, you can take a boat excursion to the nearby glaciers, including the famous Glaciar Spegazzini and Glaciar Perito Moreno. Other stops along the route include the Estancia Malvinas Aires, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the Falkland Islands War, and the Evergreen Ranch, where you can experience traditional Patagonian cuisine.

DISTRIBUTED

THE FALL ROUTE

The FALL ROUTE begins in Ushuaia, a port city located on the southern coast of the Beagle Channel. From there, you can take a boat excursion to the nearby glaciers, including the famous Glaciar Spegazzini and Glaciar Perito Moreno. Other stops along the route include the Estancia Malvinas Aires, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the Falkland Islands War, and the Evergreen Ranch, where you can experience traditional Patagonian cuisine.

DISTRIBUTED

THE GOLD ROUTE

The GOLD ROUTE starts in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.

DISTRIBUTED

THE LAKES ROUTE

The LAKES ROUTE begins in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.

DISTRIBUTED

THE GRACIAS ROUTE

The GRACIAS ROUTE begins in Ushuaia, a port city located on the southern coast of the Beagle Channel. From there, you can take a boat excursion to the nearby glaciers, including the famous Glaciar Spegazzini and Glaciar Perito Moreno. Other stops along the route include the Estancia Malvinas Aires, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the Falkland Islands War, and the Evergreen Ranch, where you can experience traditional Patagonian cuisine.

DISTRIBUTED

THE FALL ROUTE

The FALL ROUTE begins in Ushuaia, a port city located on the southern coast of the Beagle Channel. From there, you can take a boat excursion to the nearby glaciers, including the famous Glaciar Spegazzini and Glaciar Perito Moreno. Other stops along the route include the Estancia Malvinas Aires, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the Falkland Islands War, and the Evergreen Ranch, where you can experience traditional Patagonian cuisine.

DISTRIBUTED

THE GOLD ROUTE

The GOLD ROUTE starts in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.

DISTRIBUTED

THE LAKES ROUTE

The LAKES ROUTE begins in Ushuaia and follows the coast of the Beagle Channel. Along the way, you can visit the Estancia Haberton, a historic sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region. Other stops include the Estancia Frey, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region, and the Estancia Suiza, a sheep station with a museum dedicated to the history of the region.